Relying on Christ's own words, the Catholic Church has always held that the bread and wine brought to the priest in the offertory procession are changed into Christ's body and blood "by the action of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit" when, at the consecration of the Mass, an ordained priest says over them the words Jesus said: "This is my body.... This is my blood."

Solemnity of Christ the King – November 24, 2024

Confiando en las palabras del mismo Cristo, la Iglesia Católica siempre a sosteniendo que el pan y el vino llevados al sacerdote durante la procesion del ofertorio se transforman en el cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo por la accion de Jesuscristo y poder del Espiritu Santo, cuando el sacerdote durante la consagracion pronuncia las palabras mismas de Cristo "Este es mi cuerpo ...Esta es mi sangre".

Thanksgiving Day November 28

Transform Your Thanksgiving into a Celebration of Faith, Gratitude, and Catholic Traditions

Thanksgiving may not be a traditional Catholic feast day, but it's a day that lends itself beautifully to the values and traditions of our faith. After all, gratitude is central to our relationship with God, and this holiday gives us a perfect opportunity to express it in meaningful ways. By blending Catholic customs and historical reflections, you can transform Thanksgiving into a celebration of faith, family, and thankfulness.

Reflect on the Real First Thanksgiving
The story of Thanksgiving often begins with the Pilgrims' feast in 1621, but history reveals an earlier celebration of gratitude infused with Catholic faith. In 1565, a Spanish expedition led by Pedro Menendez de Aviles arrived in what is now St. Augustine, Florida. Thanksgiving is a chance to embrace gratitude, reflect on Catholic history, and honor the virtues that define our faith. Whether you begin your day with Mass, delve into the stories of Catholic thanksgiving, or draw inspiration from saints and historical figures, you'll find countless ways to make this holiday spiritually enriching.

Solemnity of Christ the King – November 24, 2024

Readings: Dn 7:13–14 • Ps 93:1, 1–2, 5 • Rv 1:5–8 • Jn 18:33b–37

The Church's liturgical year concludes with this feast of Christ the King, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 to celebrate the Jubilee Year and the 16th centenary of the Council of Nicaea. Instituting this feast, Pope Pius XI proclaimed: "Pax Christi in regno Christi" ("The peace of Christ in the reign of Christ"). This feast was established and proclaimed by the Pope to reassert the sovereignty of Christ and the Church over all forms of government and to remind Christians of the fidelity and loyalty they owed to Christ, who by his Incarnation and sacrificial death on the cross had made them both adopted children of God and future citizens and heirs of the Kingdom of Heaven. The Feast was also a reminder to the totalitarian governments of Mussolini, Hitler and Stalin that Jesus Christ is the only Sovereign King. Christ is our spiritual King and Ruler who rules by truth and love. We declare our loyalty to him by the quality of our Christian commitment, expressed in our serving of others with sacrificial and forgiving love, and by our solidarity with the poor.
